

Dear ABL Members & Friends:

This September business and professional women from throughout the metro Atlanta Community will celebrate the Twenty Fourth Annual Super Tuesday, hosted by the Atlanta Business League (ABL).

Scheduled for September 16th, Super Tuesday will bring business owners and professionals together to address topics of interest and concern while highlighting the successes and accomplishments of African American women. The day of activities includes exhibits, workshops and forums, and an award's recognition luncheon.

The Super Tuesday Awards seek to encourage African American female entrepreneurs to holdfast to the goals of business ownership. The awards program acknowledges that the measure of success is not only in the annual receipts, but in the capacity to remain committed to one's vision of private enterprise.

Listed below are the Super Tuesday Awards Categories.

- ◆ Home-Based Business Achievement -- recognizes the women who owns and operates a successful business enterprise from a home office.
- ◆ Creative Style -- recognizes the female entrepreneur who has used the most creative techniques in sales, marketing or advertising as a method to business growth.
- ◆ Success Against the Odds -- recognizes a female who has successfully built a business through difficult times, and in the face of severe obstacles. Women who have overcome dire circumstances and continue to operate at a profit.
- ◆ Non-Traditional Business Enterprise -- recognizes the successful operation of a business enterprise providing services and or products in a field or industry that has traditionally been closed to women.
- ◆ Outstanding Achievement (The premiere award) -- recognizes the achievement of outstanding success in the generation of sales, new business growth, and expansion into new markets. This award recognizes Atlanta's most successful African American Female business owner for 2008.

Please complete and return the enclosed nominee application along with a black & white head shot photo by Wednesday, August 13, 2008 to Atlanta Business League, Attention: Nominations, P.O. Box 92363, Atlanta, GA 30314. Use additional paper if necessary. Incomplete or illegible applications may not be considered. All finalists will be notified no later than Friday, August 22, 2008

We look forward to you joining us for the 24th Annual Super Tuesday Conference.

Sincerely,

Leona Barr-Davenport
President & CEO
